Hockey at SISS Tournament Week - Ashburton 2022

Last week the Toko Boys 1st XI Hockey team traveled to Ashburton to compete in the Secondary School's tournament week. The week before they left the team had finished in 3rd place in Division 2 of the Dunedin competition, which equals Toko's best result.

We travelled up to Ashburton on Sunday, with a wee excursion into Omauru to visit SteamPunk. There were 16 teams in the Ashburton competition, eight boys and eight girls teams. In the boy's section, we were divided into two pools of four. Ashburton only has one turf, so with eight games a day to get through the first game started at 8am and the final started at 5.20pm.

Toko's Monday game was against Rolleston, which was one of the tournament favourites. Toko had a narrow 2-1 loss. Next up on Tuesday was the West coast which Toko won 6-2. Although the score looks comfortable Toko scored three of those goals in the last five minutes. The last of the pool games were against Middleton where Toko had a 2-3 loss. This put Toko in the bottom four play-offs for 5 & 8th position. Toko's semi-final was against Ashburton which we won 2-0.

The final on Friday was against Waitaki Boys who had beaten Toko in the semi-final last time Toko had been to the Ashburton tournament. Toko wanted to return the favour, which we did beating Waitaki Boys 1-0. The goal was scored in the first ¼ and it was a pretty tense game as both teams tried to make the game theirs. So Toko claimed 5th place. Toko was also 2nd equal with most goals scored for the team with Lachie sharing 1st place with most individual goals on four.

It was a great week and the boys hockey improved throughout the week, especially the younger players. While we lose four of the Year 13 boy's (Nic C, Seth, Nova, and Alex) the younger players have really stepped up and Toko boys hockey looks as strong as ever for next year. It was a great week all-round - a great experience and a real buzz on the way home having won our final game.

Tokomairiro High School Newsletter...

SCHOOL MISSION: Inspiring Excellence in Education, in Character and in Life.

Kia ora,

We are now officially over halfway in the term and moving very quickly to the culmination of the year; the external exams! These start on 7th November which is only seven school weeks away and approaching rapidly. Students should now be well into their revision programmes and beginning to feel more and more confident about their prospects.

Notable dates before this are the school ball on September 30 which is the last day of term and students are ensuring this runs smoothly. I have been press-ganged into running a fundraiser for this with a trivia quiz on the 23rd of September. This will not be the normal general knowledge quiz that many are used to, but a collection of different rounds that will test your knowledge and thought processing. The purpose of the evening will be to raise funds for the ball but also for everyone to have some fun. If you can get a team of six together why not come along and try something different?

There were three notable events that our students were involved in this week. The first of which was our visit by a drug dog which inspected our premises, and we were pleased to say that we detected no substances on our property. This was a very positive result, and I would like to thank the many parents who phoned or emailed their support for this action to keep their children safe.

The second major event occurred over the previous weekend which many of you would have heard about from the Otago Daily Times or The Herald involving one of our students carrying out an amazing rescue of his younger brother at Chrystalls beach.

Before I discuss the third event I want to draw your attention to some new books that are currently available which have some very dire-sounding titles: "Parenting Your Out-of-Control Teenager"; "How to Keep Your Teenager Out of Trouble and What to Do if You Can't"; and finally, "Yes, Your Teen Is Crazy!"

Research has shown that the general public think that teenagers today are dangerous and in danger, silly and self-absorbed, lazy and corrupted by consumerism. When in fact cigarette smoking, drinking and the use of most illegal drugs are down. What rose-tinted glasses we use when we look back at our generation and compare to the current crop of teens.

I was very pleased Monday morning (however, not surprised) when I received a letter from the member of the public who wanted to thank two of our students for coming to her aid the week before. Her electric scooter had become stuck in the gutter, and she was going to be late for an appointment. The students ran to Daza's Garage to get help and ensured she got to her appointment on time. I was very pleased to relay this message of thanks onto them that day. Our school values are Respect, Responsibility and Excellence, I believe these students met all three criteria during this situation and I am pleased to say I see several examples of this on a daily basis at school.

Nga mihi.

Whats On @ The Hub?

It's great to be rejoining the team @ the Hub! It seems we have all been busy navigating our way through the challenges of covid, winter and the general business that life brings.

Currently in the Hub we have our Community Chaplains in on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, and Lisa Foster who is the Community Connector at Anglican Family Care. We're thrilled to have her join the hub team! Lisa can help while you are isolating at home, by supporting you with food parcels, paying bills etc. Once you come out of isolation, they can assist you in getting back to work or school, or to doctor's appointments. They are a non-judgemental navigation service and can help you get the support you need, even if you have tested positive for COVID-19 again. So, pop in and see Lisa on Thursdays from 9.30-11.30am.

We have organised the space so come down and check it out! We also have some beautiful artwork by Caley Hall hanging in the hub.

Tuesday's are still our bread days and Thursdays we have our food bags. Pop in and see Arna and the team on Mondays, Tuesday's and Thursdays.

Waihola/ Clarendon WI Report

A smaller than usual number attended our August meeting which met at the Waihola Hall.

One visitor was welcomed. Two Mottos were provided. "Die with memories, not dreams" and "If opportunity doesn't knock, build a door"

The roll call was our favourite flower, and we all had a different flower. Jeanne then read about each flower and its meanings and attributes. Entries were finalised for the yearly Eisteddfod to be held on Wednesday the 7th at the Fairfield Hall. Our group is the hostesses for this occasion and will need to be at the Hall at nine o'clock.

Our speaker was Clark Campbell of Campbell and Sons, funeral directors in Mosgiel. Clark spoke of the history of funerals, his own history when his first job was cleaning their cars. He is the 4th generation of his family to be involved in the business. Many questions were asked of him. Next meeting will be in the Bowling Clubrooms on the 19th September, with the speaker being from the Alzheimers Society.

Genesis Articles

We are very grateful for articles received about any news that is happening in the community. We try our best to publish articles on the week provided but due to space restraints we are not always able to. If your article is not printed in the week submitted, our goal is to publish it in the next Genesis issue.

Bible Reading for the Week

'Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, Colossians 3:23

Year 11 Writing - Otematata

The hut is located in the small town of Otematata. It's bright yellow with an old iron roof and window seals which are as white as paper. It has a number of windows facing every direction, allowing it to absorb heat in the summer.

Overgrown bushes shield the house from the road making it look like a jungle. Rabbit holes cover the whole yard with little to no grass growing at all in the summer. There's a junky old shed filled to the brim with kayaks, windsurfing gear, and even an old car that hasn't run in a year. The couch, which has seen over half the family sit on it, and two tired pieces of furniture in the living room, are covered in a rainbow-like fabric. The kitchen has a line of banana-coloured cabinets with white door handles. Opposite the cabinets, is the tabletop with a white finish; the oven is settled nicely amongst the banana-coloured cabinets while the fridge sits nestled in the corner. From the kitchen, a long hallway leads to the bedroom; it is a simple box-shaped room with just two power outlets on each side, and the bed is dead in the centre making you feel enclosed in the room. The walls are covered in badly peeling wallpaper that once had beautiful golden flowers.

Outside, the lake is just down the road which in summer is chockablock full of boats, with people gliding across the water on skis or biscuits. When boats disappear, the fishermen thrive in the fading light trying to catch one in a million. Mountain bikers cruise down the valley and beside the lake, bouncing down the trails made of earth and rock, stopping only to take a break and exchange words. The lake breeze blows lightly along the trail with the sun beating down on their backs.

The feeling of stress vanishes with the relaxing atmosphere that is created while being there. You can do amazing walks that take you towering towards the sky overlooking the crystal clear waters where thousands of willows line the banks overhanging the water. When you start your descent, darting down the trails, you will see incredible lavender and bleached-coloured flowers.

Whether inside or outside, I'm always going to enjoy being in Otematata and adding to the memories I've gathered there.

RSA News From the Trenches

Welcome to Spring as we rock into another week. Plenty going on down at the RSA with a big crowd on hand to watch the All Blacks demolish Argentina. The Pick the Score jackpot was almost struck by Josh Day, who came very close to collecting the cash, but just like his golf putting, it just lipped out. Never mind so the Jackpot lives for the next All Black test vs Australia in a couple of weeks.

Speaking of competition, the NPC Tipping Comp is thundering along with plenty of entrants puffing out their chests as the scores are almost about to be covered up and the deception as to how many points they have will begin in earnest. From what I've heard, a couple of cunning individuals are saving their joker for a last gasp charge to be victor.

We also had an visitor from overseas arrive back home, with the definition of a One Man Army being warmly greeted, by all members. Good to catch up with the big man Tamati.

Thursday night raffles are booming each week with a new updated selling team, bringing rave reviews from members concerned. So between winning meat packs from best butcher in NZ, and potentially winning weekly membership draw, it just reinforces the RSA as the supreme leader in social entertainment.

Milton Elder CARE Report

With winter meaning to be over as I write this, it feels as if it's changed its mind, and chosen to stay winter, with the wind and the rain.

During July, we had the usual Housie, along with a day of "It's in the Bag". These games are enjoyed by clients and volunteers alike. We had a couple of speakers and a trip out was enjoyed by everyone. We welcomed several entertainers, with Pete and Eve being quite popular, we also had Syliva and Eddie who are long time visitors to our group. August was a mixed up month with some of our members falling ill, and care was cancelled for a week with Colleen Mackie stepping up to run the group. House of course was played, with Trevor Graham, Colleen and Sharon who sang, along with a craft afternoon. We also welcomed a speaker, who was our current Mayor, Brian Cadogan.

Elder Care had the joy of celebrating their 28th birthday this month too, and we had a lovely afternoon tea that was followed by an enjoyable afternoon of singing, we even had a karaoke machine provided by trust member, Donna Riding. We put out a very big thank you to Donna! The trust members came along to join in on the fun and we also gave out some certificates to those who volunteer their time to help out at the day services.

As the year comes to a close, and as Christmas gets near, we hope that there are no more health scares, and we hope that all our clients that have not been here for their personal reasons are able to come back and enjoy the last four months that are left in the year. If anyone else in the community is feeling lonely, come along and we'll be sure to make you feel welcome.
