Monday and Tuesday of last week saw students given the opportunity to vote in a parallel election to that of their parents and caregivers. The Party vote went the way of Labour (15) with the rest being National (9), Act NZ (3), NZ First (1), Green Party (1) and Aotearoa Legalise Cannabis Party (1) Ingrid Leary gained the electorate seat from Liam Kernaghan 14 votes to 10 votes. Scott Willis and Oliver Lequeux gained one vote each and Mark Patterson, two. Both referendums were passed with 8 Yes votes and no votes against the bills for both. From the numbers; it was disappointing that so few voted but, as it is for us as eligible voters, it is a choice decision.

Pink Shirt Day

October 16th was Pink Shirt Day and we saw both students and staff come out to take a stand against bullying in Aotearoa. It is an opportunity for schools and workplaces to be part of the movement to end bullying, celebrate diversity and spread aroha and kindness. Tokomairiro High School students were encouraged to take part in a mufti-day and wear pink to celebrate the day. We had an amazing turnout and were impressed with the level of participation from all.

Vegetable Plants for the Hub

The vegetables plants that we grew from seed for the Hub Community Garden are in the process of being collected and planted. It's been a big job but we are really happy with the plants we have produced. Our students are also selling heaps of vege plants which are available from the plant shop on Wednesday afternoons, and from the Stihl Shop. We also have been growing a good selection of shrubs and perennials.

STOP BULLYING

Tokomairiro High School Class Act Recipients

Tarryn Roxburgh and Callum Davie appeared in the ODT's Class Act feature which celebrates the success of Otago's young people.

Tarryn Roxburgh

A healthy taste for competition keeps Tokomairiro High School deputy head girl Tarryn Roxburgh ahead of the pack. The 18-year-old all-rounder likes to test her mettle in both academic and athletic fields. Having achieved NCEA Levels 1 and 2 with excellence, Level 3 looks certain to follow this year.

Tarryn won the senior track championship both this year and last, and cross-country in 2018 and 2019. Turning out at centre for Toko's Senior A netball team keeps her sharp on the court.

She says long-distance running is her chosen form of relaxation, along with reading. "I don't have any patience for TV. I'd much rather sit down with a good book, or head out for a run."

Strongly engaged with her school community — as a peer support leader, student council member and house leader — Tarryn's caring instincts may have influenced her choice of tertiary study next year.

Despite looking forward to her next steps in life, Tarryn, too, acknowledges her strong attachment to South Otago.

"I'll always come back to home, friends and family."

Achievements: NCEA Levels 1 and 2 endorsed with Excellence (2018-19); school Senior Girls track champion (2019-20); Senior Girls' cross-country champion (2018-19); Senior A netball team (2017-2020); Deputy Head Girl (2020); Peer Support Leader (2019-20); Student Council Member (2020); house leader (2020).

Hopes for the future: A career in radiology, radiotherapy or pharmacy.

Jumbo

You left unexpectedly,
Like the silence after a storm.

The touch of your soft white fur,
Seemed I was touching the clouds themselves.

The slight smell of dirt,
Every time you ran up to me.

The humane look you gave me,
When I was playing on that dirt.

Following behind me,
Trying to surprise me.

Running around with me,
Like there's no tomorrow.

Always barking at someone new,
Like they are here to harm us.

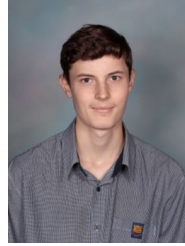

The call I received,
About you gone.

Left me speechless,
And to accept the truth.

Still don't know,
What happened to you.

Poem by Kunaal Pratap, Year 12

Callum Davie

In January, the 17-year-old Tokomairiro High School all-rounder, Callum Davie, attended the Rotary Science and Technology Forum at Auckland University, and came away with a much clearer view of his future study interests. His plans to study engineering have now changed to studying Physics at the University of Otago.

Preferring to keep his mind active and explore the intricacies of how things work, Callum is more likely to be found solving a Rubik's cube or constructing his own PC than sitting in front of the telly.

Despite being ready to spread his wings and enter the next phase of his education, Callum says he will retain positive memories of his time at high school.

"I think because Toko is a smaller high school, the teachers can give more personal attention to each student. It's been good."

Not satisfied with his considerable academic achievements alone — gaining NCEA Levels 1 and 2 Endorsed with Excellence — the young Waihola native also gives his best in sporting and musical fields. "I've been playing guitar for the past three years, and I'm studying NCEA level 3 music this year. I'm into music theory, as well as playing. "

An early interest in football has been superseded by hockey for the past three years, and Callum has taken the field for the Senior A Toko team.

Achievements: NCEA levels 1 and 2 endorsed with excellence (2018-19); senior A hockey (2018-20); Rotary Science and Technology Forum (2020).

Hopes for the future: Studying mechanical engineering at the University of Canterbury.

Milton Garden Club

Ritchies did us proud with their magnificent bus (sorry, "coach") for our Round the Block trip from Milton to Blue Mountain Nurseries in Tapanui to Lawrence for lunch at "26 on Ross" and home to Milton. The coach was a new 44 seater in pristine condition and our driver, Ginger Lloyd drove it beautifully. The Club had agreed to subsidise our trip which meant that the 21 people who came only had to pay $20 each for this great day.

We stopped at Clinton for comfort, coffee and cake and went on to the Blue Mountain Nurseries at Tapanui. Chris Hughes showed us how seeds were planted in tiny pottles by an ingenious machine saving hours of labour. He shared with us the grafting technique used to attach a cutting onto a root stock of Rhododendrons and how he and his staff were breeding a plant to become smaller than the metre high giant it started out as.

At midday we set off for Lawrence and lunch. A hearty meal was had and raffles bought with Lynn Smart and Sue Ballantyne winning the plants and gardening gloves that Isobel Robinson had supplied as prizes. Thank you to all involved for the $71 raised for the Club. Although the weather was a bit drizzly and cool, it was a most enjoyable trip.

Our next trip is to three gardens and the Wake Robin Nursery in Balclutha on Monday 9th November. Members will be rung. For further information contact Annette Gillies 4174173 or 021 078 6366.

Coastal Classic

November 8, 2020 is the 15th running of the Coastal Classic MTB/Run/Walk event in Taieri Mouth.

The event offers three stages of MTB race: 15km, 30km or 45 km. The Run/Walk along coastal areas of Taieri Mouth is either a 12km or 21 km Run or 12km Walk. The Seascape Cafe is at the half way point of the 12km walk and run and offers free coffee, tea, muffins and of course WATER.

This is a fundraiser supporting emergency infrastructure for the community. Last year, along with the help of Milton Rotary, we purchased a defibrillator located at the Taieri Mouth Holiday Camp Ground. Money has been donated to our First Response for two large emergency kits. We hope to raise enough funds for a Tsunami Warning siren system to be installed. This event wouldn't happen without the cooperation of local land owners and locals volunteering to help on the day.

All registrations by 9 a.m. at Livingstonia Park in Taieri Mouth followed by pre-race instructions.

Official start time is 10am. Go online and register for your event: <http://www.coastalclassic.org>.

Come along on the 8th of November and support our food and drink vendors. Taieri Beach School will have the bbq and River Tide Caravan Café will offer yummy baking and drinks.

Even if you are not a participant, support this local fundraising effort. A lot of HEART and organization goes into this event.

Thank you for your support.

News From the Trenches

Firstly on a sad note, I'd like to acknowledge the passing of Earle Pringle last week, who contributed a great deal to the local community over a lot of years. On behalf of RSA, we offer our sincere condolences to family and friends; he will be sadly missed.

Paddy and I have returned from our Wellington mission. Thanks to Bert Pringle for filing his report last week at the RSA - he showed me what he contributed, and looks like his has a future as a media correspondent.

This coming Thursday night will be HUGE as the Joker Jackpot MUST GO!!! For a tiny investment of $2, you could become the toast of Milton. Many have tried so far, but only one will be successful, so make sure you don't miss out. Be there by 6pm. We have had good sized crowds on Thursday night raffles, but there was a member who suffered from hearing loss when Lucky No 17 was drawn out.

We are looking at holding both a Wine Night and a separate Whiskey Night for those who have a sophisticated palate. Put your name down to express your interest in these upcoming events. Also if you are looking for a location for your Xmas Party, look no further than the RSA. The NPC Rugby Competition is hearing up nicely and on Friday we will be showing Otago vs Northland on four gigantic TVs, so join the Handle Club for another top night entertainment.

Finally the blessed Election has finally concluded with a convincing win to the Labour Party - there seemed to be some confusion taking place at a members address at Milburn that appeared to show both Red AND Blue Billboards..

Still lots to report on upcoming events, but DO NOT MISS OUT on this Thursday night.

Tokomairiro High School Ball Photos

The ball was held on Friday 25th September at the Coronation Hall. Below are just a few photos of everyone dressed in their finery.

Unexpected Company

Annabelle Philips (Year 13), wrote this during lockdown. Due to not having the space to reprint it all, this is just a taste! To read the rest, go to our Toko High Genesis Facebook page, or email for a copy - genesis@tokohigh.school.nz.

Mrs Robinson loved the smell of rain; the way it forced the earth to roll over, exposing its fresh scent. She liked the fat drops especially; they confirmed that it was in fact raining. They would splash splish around the dirt path she walked, as small creatures passed her by. She was always amused by their different reactions to the rain. The dormice (who hated the wet) would hurry past without as much as a "Good Day, Mrs. Robinson", before scurrying home. Old Mr Badger would only grunt and waddle, puffing his cigar smoke into her path (though that was to be expected; he was such a disagreeable creature). The rabbits had more time to talk, however. Particularly Mr Benjamin Bouncer.

He informed Mrs Robinson that the water rats had been causing terror to old Mrs Tiggy Winkle (the hedgehog washerwoman) in the lake district. He thought someone had better teach them a lesson. He'd said he would have - if the weather wasn't so bad and he wasn't so old. That made Mrs Robinson laugh, as she knew the main factor was: he was far too round to be of any threat.

Mrs Robinson carried on home, holding ever so tightly to her basket of goods which she'd filled at the market. She had purchased a particularly large pumpkin and planned on using it in her famous autumn soup. The old squirrel took advantage of plant meals before she had to go into hibernation. She would only be able to eat seeds and nuts then.

As she made her way up the hill to her oak tree, Mrs Robinson had an eerie feeling that her home wasn't as it was when she had left. Cautiously, she proceeded to her front door, studying the scene for anything out of the ordinary. But everything seemed to be in place. The old squirrel let out a sigh of relief. As she rummaged through her basket to find the door key, a strong gust of wind flurried past her and into her tree. Coincidentally, the heavy wooden door creaked open.

Mrs Robinson grew sick with alarm. I'm certain I locked the door this morning as I left. She thought. Suddenly the idea of an intrusion sat in her stomach like a sharp rock. Oh dear, what shall I do? I haven't time to go back down into the woods to retrieve Mr Benjamin Bouncer! I shall investigate my home alone! Oh dear, the sun has nearly set; this could be it. The last time I see the sun, or anything for that matter. If it is a cat, I will surely die. With all the bravery the stout squirrel could muster, Mrs Robinson set foot boldly into her home...
